*Though we travel
the world over to
find the beautiful,*

*we must carry it
with us or we will find it not.*

*someday it's enough
to be different or alone* and it isn't enough to hide in a crowd.

Some try being different, and some try being the same.

College life

*is the grand make believer
the bitter reality
the party that never ends the race that is never won.*

Is it Alice in Wonderland standing on her head talking about Pogo about calculus

With Hail Alma Mater in the background and the feel of peanut butter sticky on her thumbs and a beer glass standing on her floor.

It is a retreat which the world can never touch

A place of peace and silence where the moment of international crisis is the point after touchdown

The most unforgettable character is—yourself.

The religion is faith

The creed is hope

The motto is “next week we study”

Never before

not after

are you so close to reality, and yet so vitally withdrawn from it.

The sorrows are deep deathly sloughs of despair and dejection

The loneliness comes creeping and overwhelms you

And there is no one and nothing to fill

*The racking,
the void,*

And then you have a lemon soda

And there is a joy

and ecstasy, the love

That spills and pours down the avenues of your life, reaching even counsellors and department heads.

The rustling of leaves

And the string of cars glistening on a rainy night that

Fill you with peace and love

That no cathedral or poem can ever give.

They simply are, these four years

And we never will them

We sometimes appreciate them

But we spend the rest of our lives reliving them.

the year

*fall returns
and there is time to talk
to new and old friends* and take the last gulp of air before the first class.

*classes begin
they speak
and mostly*

*we listen
and fill our
notebooks*

*searching—
each in his own way*

*alone we find solitude,
together we find love,*

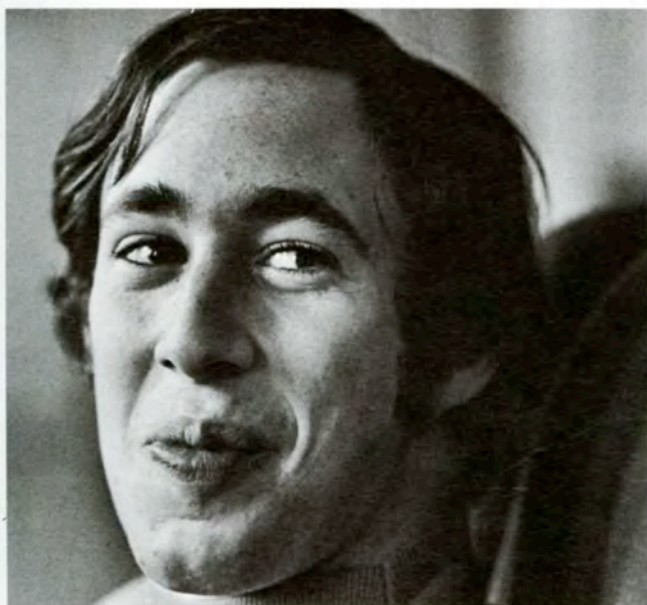

*"You grow up the
day you have your first real
laugh—
at yourself"*

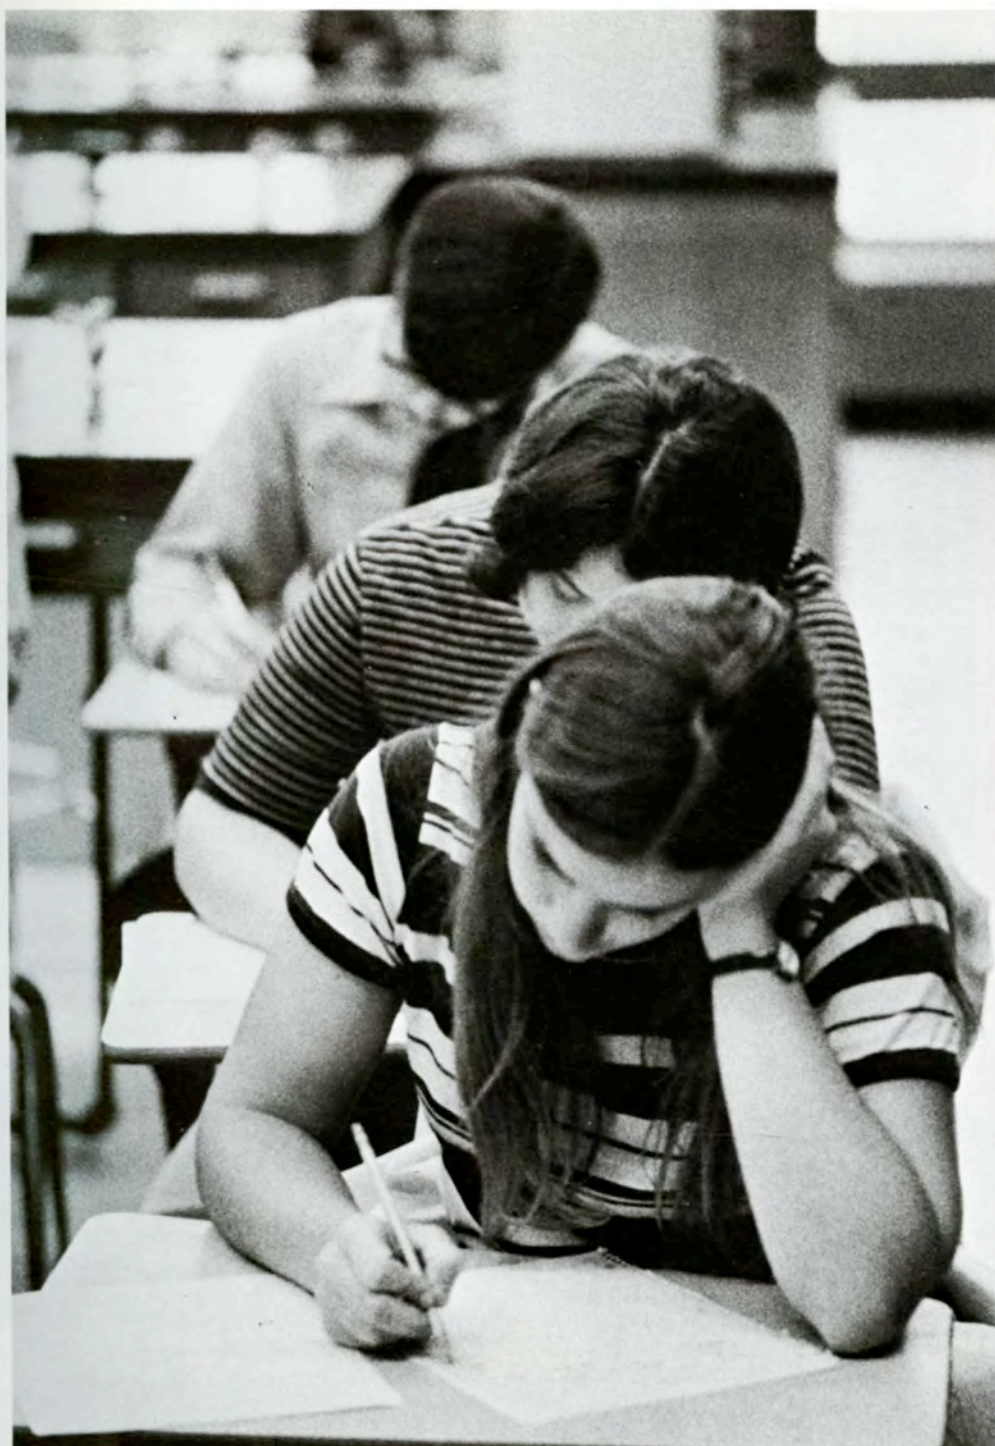

*time goes so slow
and then runs out too fast and even cramming for finals is too much to take*

*try to relax—
if you can,
where you can.
finals.*

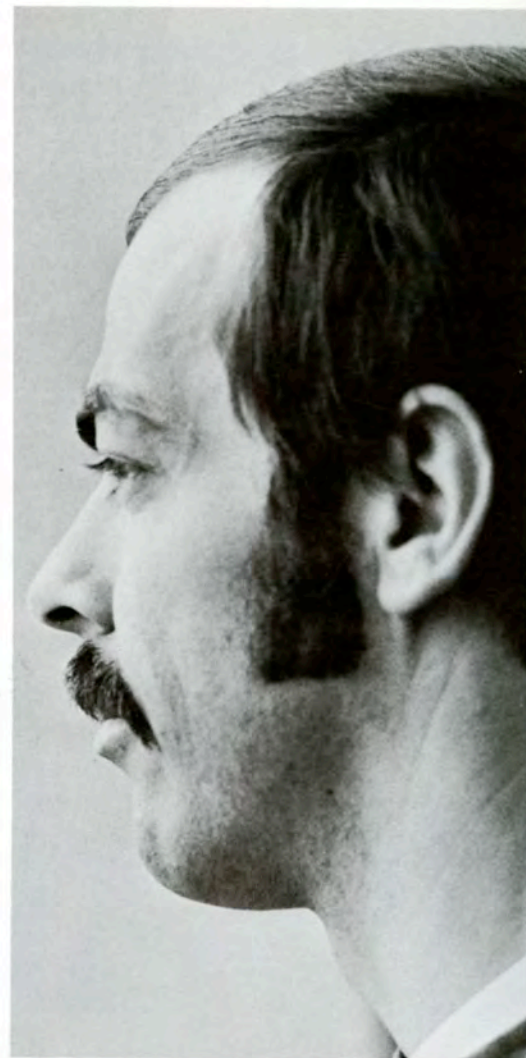

*she's maligned
 and coddled,
 outgoing
 and introspective,
 knowing
 and naive.
 she went sorority
 or didn't.
 she gained
 some freedoms
 but still feels
 locked up—or in.
 she studies until 3 a.m.
 and sleeps till noon.
 she dresses to please;
 herself,
 someone else,
 or no one at all.*

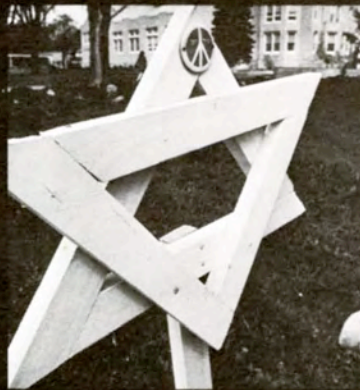

*college is
four years of his life
often sandwiched between high school and
whatever comes after.
his uniqueness—
a combination
of his private goals
and fears,
his public challenges
and achievements.
but always—
a war
that looms ahead
or lies hauntingly
in the past.*

*"War is killing
off the friendship
of man for man"*
